Undine - a ballet story of a water spirit, switched at a young age with a peasant girl, so that one day she might marry a human to gain a soul.

The girls' stories intersect fifteen years later when both of them fall in love with the same knight. This classic story of love, honor, and betrayal is visually rich and skillfully danced to music by Ottorino Respighi.

The mysterious worlds of water spirits and humans come alive in this thrilling theatrical experience that will capture audiences of all ages.

Teaching aids available prior to the performance: synopsis, composer information, historical profile.
